

Thornton Hall

A WING

Home of the Dean's Office, Center for Engineering Career Development, Undergraduate and Graduate Offices, BME Ideas Lab, and the Engineering and Society Department.

C WING

ELECTRICAL & COMPUTER ENGINEERING

National Instruments Engineering Discovery Laboratory, a cleanroom lab space.

E WING

Classroom space and faculty offices.

B WING

The School of Engineering and Applied Science has an embedded Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) group housed here.

D WING

CENTER FOR DIVERSITY IN ENGINEERING

A study and social area for students that is a safe space on campus. This is also the home of our Clark Scholars and Bridge Program.

Olsson Hall

SYSTEMS & INFORMATION ENGINEERING, CIVIL & ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING DEPARTMENTS

Link Lab, our Multidisciplinary Cyber-Physical Systems Research Facility is on the 2nd Floor.

Rice Hall

COMPUTER SCIENCE

LEED-certified, houses the Lacy Design Lab, the engineering laboratory where 1st year students take Engineering Fundamentals Courses

Small Hall

APPLIED MATHEMATICS

At UVA, Calculus is taught in small classes (~35 students) to maximize learning.

Mechanical Engineering Building

MECHANICAL & AEROSPACE ENGINEERING

Houses a new flight simulator that can log hours for a pilot's license, a cross-disciplinary Mechatronics lab, and a Maker's space available to all students.

Jesser Hall

NANOSCALE MATERIALS FACILITY

Students have access to an electron microscope and other cutting-edge materials science characterization equipment.

Wilsdorf Hall

MATERIALS SCIENCE ENGINEERING

3rd floor is home to one of the top corrosion science centers in the world! Also, a place to stop for Greenberry's Coffee.

Chemical Engineering Building

CHEMICAL ENGINEERING

In teaching labs, students can use industrial scale processing equipment.

MR5 (non-contiguous)

BIOMEDICAL ENGINEERING

A department that is held in conjunction with UVA's Medical School, which is why the department is located adjacent to the hospital.

TO ACCESS UVA MAPS:

