Enroll your child in the best introduction to engineering design course! This is a weeklong course for rising 5th-8th graders.

Students will learn the engineering design process, including brainstorming, interviewing stakeholders, and sketching prototypes. At the end of the week, students will know how to design like a real engineer!

For more information contact the course instructors Lily Stiles and Megan Mazzatenta by email at lds5pf@virginia.edu.